Market Technical Outlook

Nifty opened higher traded in a narrow range with positive bias throughout the day to close in green. On a daily chart, we are observing the prices for two consecutive trading sessions are trading near the 50-days SMA (11305) but have closed below it. In coming trading session if prices trade above 11305 levels then it may test 11400 – 11450 levels. On the downside, 11100 - 11000 levels may act as support for the day.

We still maintain our stance that the trend is down and at higher level selling may emerge. Hence one needs to be cautious at current level.
