Market Technical Outlook

Nifty opened lower traded with extreme volatility and finally closed in red. On the daily chart, we are observing spinning top candlestick pattern at the demand zone. Hence, the demand zone of 17450 to 17500 levels holds significance. In coming trading session if Nifty for first hour trades below 17600 level then we may test 17500– 17400 levels. On the upside, 17800–17900 levels may act resistance for the day.

We maintain our stance that the uptrend is coming under pressure. Hence, cautiously positive approach should be adopted at current level.
