Market Technical Outlook

Nifty, opened higher traded in a narrow range with choppiness and finally managed to close in green. On the daily chart we are observing a "Doji" candlestick pattern which suggests indecisiveness prevailing at current level. At present, prices have marginally closed above the 21days-SMA (14597 shown in green in the above graph) and are still trading below the falling 50-day SMA (14740 shown in red in the above graph). In coming trading session if Nifty for first hour trades above 14670 level then it is likely to test 14780 – 14820 levels. On the downside, 14500 – 14400 levels.

We still maintain our stance that, one needs to adopt cautious approach at current level. However, stock specific activity is likely to continue in small and Mid-cap stocks.
