Market Technical Outlook

Nifty, opened higher traded in a narrow range with positive bias throughout the day to close in green. On the daily chart we are observing a “Doji” candle stick pattern which has closed above 20-daySMA (14784) this suggests upside momentum. In coming trading session if Nifty trades above 15000 then it may test 15100 - 15150 levels. On the downside, 14750 - 14680 levels may act as support for the day.

At present prices have started trading well above the 50-day SMA (14794). Hence, one can adopt cautiously positive approach at current level. However, stock specific activity is likely to continue.
