Market Technical Outlook

The week began on a negative note and traded with a negative bias throughout a week which led the Sensex to end with a net loss of 3.85% whereas Nifty lost 3.69% vis-à-vis the previous week.

Pattern Formation: On the Weekly chart, we are observing strong "Bear" candlestick patterns which suggest weakness at current level. On the Daily chart, we are observing indices closed below 50SMA, but momentum oscillator showing oversold position.

Outlook: Combining the above two conflict pattern formations it is evident that markets will remain volatile and after a sharp fall in previous week we can see the range bound activity at current level. At present Nifty has resistance at 11350 – 11410 - 11480 levels whereas on the downside it has support at 11240 – 11180 - 11150 levels. In coming week if Nifty trades and close above 11350 level then it is likely to test 11420 – 11450 – 11480 levels. However, if Nifty trades and close below 11220 level then it can test 11180 – 11140 - 11080 levels.

Broadly, the weekly trend is down and 11250 – 11220 zone remains crucial. Hence, if Nifty trade below the mentioned zone there is probability that Nifty may head lower and test 11180 – 11120 levels within a week.
