Nifty opened lower, traded with choppiness but finally closed in red. On the daily chart, we are observing that prices have formed two consecutive bear candle which have closed below the 21-day. This suggests that the markets are circumspect at higher level. In coming trading session if nifty for first hour trades above 17970level then it may test 18000– 18070 levels. On the downside, 17800 -17700 levels may act as support for the day.

At present one needs to adopted cautiously positive approach at current level as stock specific activity is likely to continue.
