Market Technical Outlook

Nifty opened higher traded with choppiness in a narrow range but finally managed to close in green. On the daily chart, after a strong bear candle we are witnessing two consecutive “Doji” candlestick patterns with higher high. This gives a small clue that a bounce from current level cannot be ruled out. In coming trading session if Nifty trades above 15400 level then it may test 15500 – 15600 levels. On the downside, 15250 and 15150 levels may act as support for the market.

We continue to maintain our stance that one needs to adopt cautious approach at current level.
