Market Technical Outlook

Sensex ended with net gains of 0.37% whereas Nifty gained 0.26% w-o-w.

Pattern Formation: On the Weekly Chart After a strong bull candle we are observing a Doji candlestick pattern which suggests indecisiveness prevailing at current level. On Daily chart After eight days of a rally we are observing a bear candle which has breached the previous day low and has closed below it.

Outlook: Combining the above two pattern formation it is evident that a consolidation or minor correction cannot be ruled out. At present Nifty has resistance at 11540 – 11587 - 11642 levels whereas on the downside it has support at 11372 – 11326 - 11271 levels. In coming week if Nifty trades and close above 11494 level then it is likely to test 11540 – 11587 - 11642 levels. However, if Nifty trades and close below 11419 level then it can test 11372 – 11326 - 11271 levels.

Broadly, we are of the opinion that a consolidation or minor correction up to 11326 to 11200 cannot be rule out. Since the weekly trend is up there is high probability that near 11300 – 11200 buying is likely to emerge. Hence cautiously positive approach should be adopted at current level as stock specific move is likely to continue.
