Market Technical Outlook

Nifty, opened higher traded with choppiness but finally close in green. On the daily chart, we are observing a "Doji" candlestick pattern at the supply zone of 17863 to 17800. Any daily close above the mentioned supply zone would propel the upside momentum. In such scenario nifty may test 17950 – 18050 levels. On the down side, 17650 – 17550 levels may act as support for the day.

We continue to maintain our stance that the current price action clearly it suggests that the time wise consolidation /minor correction has ended and 17500 now remain strong support for the market. Hence, one needs to adopt cautiously positive approach at current level as stock specific activity is likely to continue.
