Market Technical Outlook

Nifty opened higher traded in a narrow range throughout the day to close in green. We maintain our stance that 20-days SMA (17419) is crucial support. Any daily close below 17419 would indicate weakness. In coming trading session if nifty for first hour trades below 17419 then it may test 17320– 17260 levels. On the upside, 17670 – 17740 levels may act as resistance for the day.

Broadly, we are of the opinion that 20-days SMA (17419) remains make or break level. Any daily close below it may intensify the downside move. Hence, one needs to be cautious at current level. However, stock specific activity is likely to continue.
