Market Technical Outlook

Nifty opened lower but recovered some of its loss during the day and finally managed to close in red. On the daily chart we are observing a Doji candlestick pattern this suggests indecisiveness prevailing at current level. We maintain our stance that the 21-daySMA (17485) holds significance going forward. In coming trading session if Nifty for first hour trades above 17781 level then it may test 17930 - 17980levels. On the downside, 17600 - 17520 levels.

We still continue to maintain our stance that stock specific activity is likely to continue.
