Outlook:

The benefit of platform access fees coupled with orders in pharma side will help sustain margins from here for next few years. Pharma revenues aren't recognised immediately but gets recognised over 9-12 month period. Company sees EBITDA margins and ROCEs improving over the next two years on back of pharma contribution and increase in utilisation of facilities. New businesses will get commercialized next year Home furnishings, appliances, auto components, FMCG and healthcare which will aid topline. Pharma to be 25% of business in 3 years and 35-50% of overall business in 6-7 years. FY23 had 10 Mn pen sales; FY24 will be able to do 20-25% growth in volumes. FY25 will have 25% value growth and 15-20% in volumes. We continue to remain positive on Shaily. At CMP, company trades 20.7x TTM EV/EBITDA and 41.9x TTM EPS We had come out with our note in June 2023, link to the report:

Shaily Engineering Plastics Q3FY24 Conference Call Highlights Key Highlights:

- Own IP sales will increase significantly over next 24-36 months, will overtake the sales of contract manufacturing
- New orders awarded were: 4 contracts signed for development and supply of pen injectors. Contract awarded for manufacturing of 2 products in carbon steel business. Business awarded for supply of caps (personal care segment)
- Q3 had higher revenues from pharma segment along with platform access fees (UK Business), which flowed directly into EBITDA. Some of the pharma income was backended, which gets recorded now
- The platform fees is wont be similar every quarter but will be constant annually. Management has guided that the figure will stay similar in Q4
- As pharma contribution increases, domestic contribution will increase (nothing substantial)
- 90 days current WC in pharma business
- FY23 had 10 Mn pen sales, FY24 will be able to do 20-25% growth in volumes. FY25 will have 25% value growth and 15-20% in volumes

Semaglutide:

- Company is the only spring driven solution that matches the innovators device. The supplies for rest of world markets will start by FY26 and for USA will start by 2030
- 70% of the semaglutide generic share will be with Shaily based on the number of contracts signed and in discussions.
- H1 had good growth in contract manufacturing, H2 will have better growth in pens
- Current semaglutide market is 150-200 mn pens a year. Number is expected to grow till 2030. 2-5 Bn doses a year will give result in 0.5 Bn pens a year (rough estimate for future)

Trizepatide:

- Last stage of development of auto injector for trizepatide (three step auto injector).
 Meant to be used with Mounjaro and Zepbound (generic equivalent). Lilly reported very healthy numbers on Trizepatide (and will continue to grow going ahead).
- Company is in final stages of development for Trizepatide. Company created healthy pipeline for Teriparatide and GLP1. Now the company is in process of onboarding customers to procure volumes for future
- Company is currently trying to secure as many as generics as they can to create pipeline for trizepatide.
- NCE-1 filing deadline of May 2026, supplies for auto injectors will start by Dec 2024. Pen supplies will continue till CY25 & CY26. Official market launch will happen in 2035-2036. Company will still supply smaller volumes till then.
- Company doesn't work with Novo & Lilly, only Sanofi and that too contract manufacturing.

Tovs

- Margins similar to home furinishings and consumer business. Business is not sticky (customers switching suppliers based on pricing differential) hence company not actively pursuing.
- Toys capacity is fungible for any other business except healthcare

New pharma facility:

- Operational end of Q2FY24, addition of machines happened in Q3. Asset turn of 2.25-2.5x at full capacity.
- FY26 will have high level of utilisation (will have market launches for Semaglutide, Liraglutide and scale up of some insulin businesses). Likely to be at full utilisation
- Company has invested INR 1.25 Bn in pharma side in the last 18-24 months, ramp up in revenues will happen in 2 years.

Other KTAs:

- · Company received strong response from Pharmapack
- Middle east market can contribute total 30% to Shaily's pen sales but as US opens up, the % share from ME will come down (the absolute numbers may remain same).
- Commercial orders: 1st completed, 2nd being executed, will be updated in Q4
- Company has put a temporary hold on activity of hiring the CEO. Currently hiring senior leadership under CEO position who will handle different segments

Outlook: The benefit of platform access fees coupled with orders in pharma side will help sustain margins from here for next few years. Pharma revenues aren't recognised immediately but gets recognised over 9-12 month period.
