Market Technical Outlook

Nifty opened lower but smartly recovered from its days low during the day to close in green. . On the daily chart, we are observing that prices almost tested the 50-day SMA (21522) by making a low of 21530. In coming trading session if nifty trades above 21875 level then it may test 21950 – 22070 levels. On the downside, 21710 – 21590 level can act as support for the day.

Since, prices have taken support at the 50-day SMA (21522) and has closed on a positive note. This clearly indicates that 50-days SMA (21522) remains a make or break level. Hence, as long as nifty holds the mentioned level one needs to adopt cautiously positive approach at current level. However, stock specific activity is likely to continue.
