Market Technical Outlook

Nifty opened higher but was unable to sustain the opening gains, which dragged nifty to close in red. On the daily chart, we are observing that prices faced resistance at the 50-days SMA (22302) by making a high of 22297. In coming trading session if nifty trades above 22260 then it may test 22310 – 22420 levels. On the downside, 22100 – 22000 levels may act as support for the day.

We still maintain our stance that prices are trading well below 50 days SMA (22302) one needs to adopt cautious approach at current level.
