Generating Wealth. Satisfying Investors.

Kochi based Federal Bank has posted subdued numbers for Q1 with sequential decline in profitability owing to poor core income and non-interest income performance and higher credit costs.

Top-line disappoints, H2FY13 expected to be better: The bank disappointed on top-line performance with poor net interest income that was recorded at Rs 490 crs with mere 7% YoY growth and flat on sequential basis primarily due to increased costs for the quarter. Also, the other income show was poor at Rs 124 crs that witnessed sequential decline of 23% and mere 6% growth YoY. This consequently dragged the profitability that observed sequential decline of 20%. However, with the business momentum picking up in the second half of the fiscal year, we expect 20% CAGR growth in Net interest income for the bank.

Sequential weak earnings performance, Q1 tends to be subdued: Poor top-line show and dramatic spike in credit costs pulled down the sequential profits to Rs 190 crs that reported 20% decline QoQ. However, on YoY basis PAT reported robust 30% growth backed by lower provisions. The first quarter tends to be subdued wrt business, but going ahead we expect 20% CAGR for earnings and expect the bank to maintain RoEs in the range of 15-16% and RoAs at 1.4% for FY13-14.

NPLs inched upwards, no major concern: The quarter witnessed rise in GNPLs to Rs 1409 crs from 1300 crs a year ago. We suspect slippages to have gone up this quarter. Also, the restructured book needs to have a closer look given the bank's exposure to SEBs and certain shaky infrastructure accounts that majorly forms the downside risks to earnings for the bank. However, the provision cushion with coverage ratio at 82% levels provides relief. Though we model in higher NPLs for the bank, the bank still stands to report healthy return ratios in tough environs which make us positive on the stock.

Investment Outlook: We continue to remain confident wrt fundamentals of the bank and given the inherent balance sheet strength, provision cushion , healthy capital cushion, adequacy and good return ratios, we Maintain BUY. We value the bank at 1.1X P/ABV FY14E with target price of Rs 480 and believe that the stock has corrected for a while indicating buying opportunity for the long-term investors.
